

Professional Advisor Group

A significant number of individuals rely heavily on the advice of their attorneys, accountants, financial planners and estate advisors when preparing their wills and planning their estates.

We also believe it is important that the professional community be well informed about Wilson Memorial Hospital and offered an update on the "State of Wilson Memorial" and why planned giving is important to the future of our community hospital.

On occasion donors will ask us to suggest a professional to assist and advise them. For the complete professional list click here.
